- 2 Application of new and revised international Financial Reporting Standards
- 2.1 New and revised IFRSs applied with no material effect on the financial statements

The following new and revised IFRSs have been adopted in these financial statements. The application of these new and revised IFRSs has not had any material impact on the amounts reported for the current and prior years but may effect the accounting for future transactions or arrangements.

New and revised IFRSs Amendments to IFRS 1

'First time adoption,' on hyperinflation and fixed dates'

Summary of requirements

The first amendment replaces references to a fixed date of '1 January 2004' with the date of transaction to FRSs' thus eliminating the need for companies adopting IFRSs for the first time to restate the recognition transactions that occurred before the date transaction to IFRSs.

The second amendment provides guidance on how an Group should resume presenting financial statements in accordance with IFRSs after a period when the group was unable to comply with IFRSs because its functional currency was subject to severe hyperinflation.

Amendment to IFRS 7

'Financial instruments: Disclosure,' on Transfer of financial assets' These amendments are the part of IASBs comprehensive review of, off-balance sheet activities. The amendments promote transparency in the reporting of transfer transactions and improve users' understanding of financial assets and the effect of those risks on a company financial position, particularly those involving securitisation of financial asset.
